

The Moore Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) Camp

Newton County Arkansas

By Smoke (Michael A.) Pfeiffer, Archaeologist

Big Piney Ranger District, Ozark-St. Francis National Forests

2008 Ozark National Forest Centennial

As are many historic sites on the Ozark-St. Francis National Forests, this site has been recorded with the Arkansas Archeological Survey as 3NW0609. According to the CCC Alumni website, this camp is Company #745, Project #F-24, and organized on 31 May 1933. <http://www.cccalumni.org/states/ARKANSAS.html>. The project number was assigned by the state. The F indicates a National Forest Project. The camp newspaper was called the Moore Breeze. The camp was located west of Richland Creek in Jones Township, in SE corner of Newton County and north of the communities of Ben Hur and Moore.

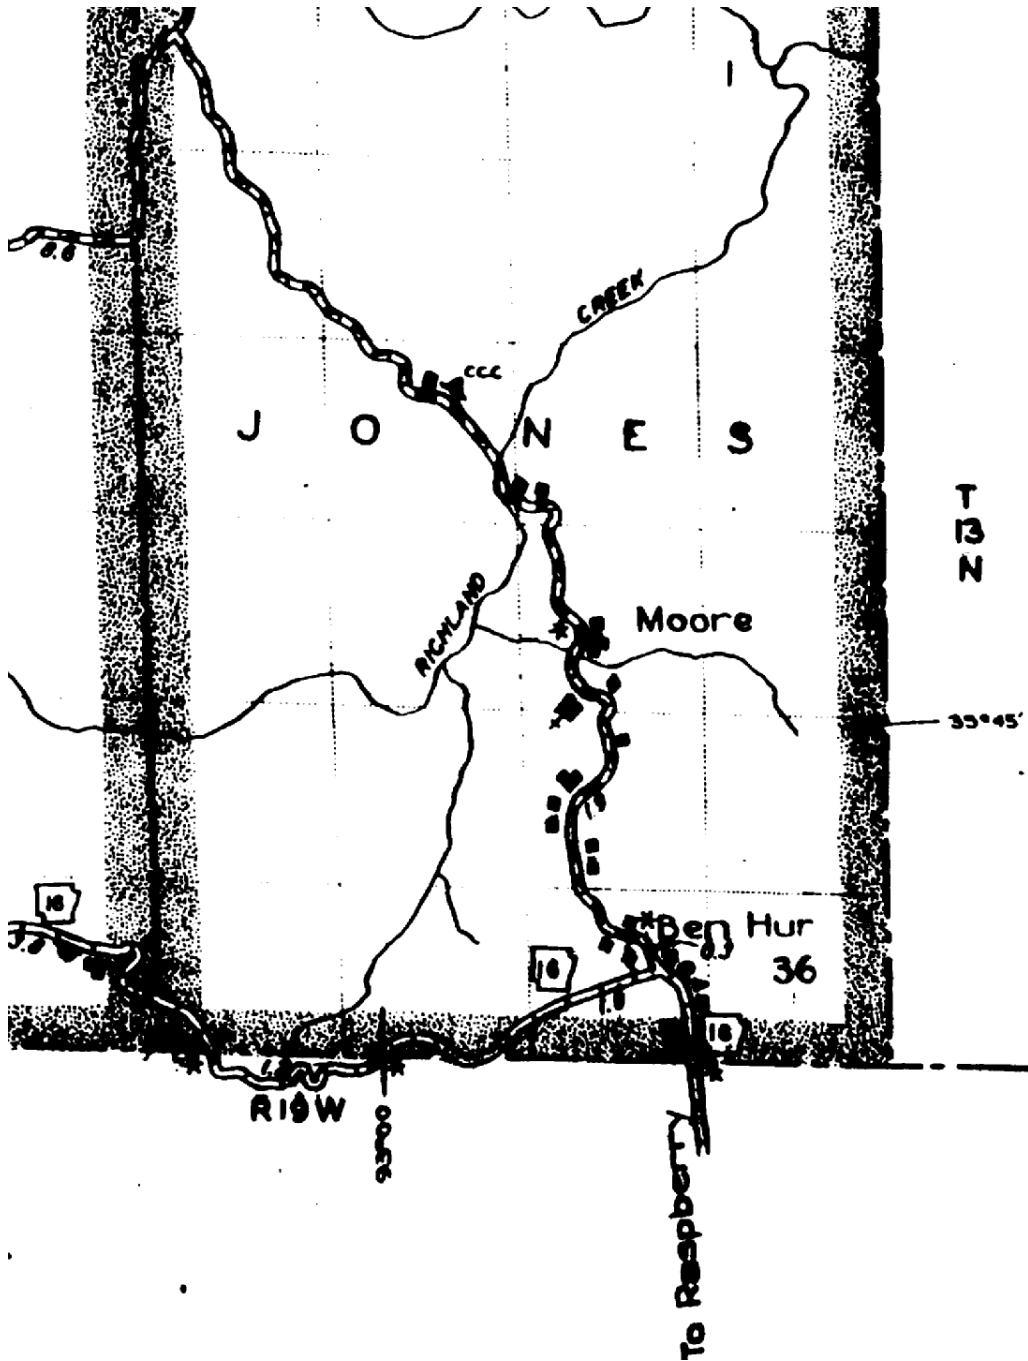

CCC Boys, early morning, going to work, Camp Moore, November 1936.

Ozark National Forest Historic Photo 335346

Moore CCC Camp 3NW0609

Enlarged from Ozark National Forest, March 31, 1937, aerial photo GD 31-84.

Enlarged from 1936 Newton County Map available online from the Arkansas State Highway & Transportation Department website at:

<http://www.arkansashihighways.com/Maps/Counties/1936/HistoricalMapst.htm>